I Vini d'Italia 2012 – L'Espresso

Vini d'Italia 2012 is a concise encyclopedia dedicated to the best Italian producers, to move deftly among the more than ten thousand reviewed wines. A reference book for knowledgeable wine lovers as well as a study manual for those taking their first steps into the world of wine.

In this guide, the wines are selected taking into account several factors ranging from product quality, the number of bottles per year, to the value for money.

As it is tradition for L'Espresso the highest score is 20 and it's graphically symbolized by a number of bottles ranging from 1 to 5.
